

Welcome to the ECC Conference 2026!

We're delighted to have you joining us in Wellington. We encourage you to arrive early to register yourself, get familiar with the venue, and settle in before the conference officially begins. Taking time to orient yourself will help you make the most of the two days ahead. Wellington offers plenty of opportunities to explore, relax, or catch up with colleagues at your own pace, making Thursday the perfect chance to ease into the conference experience.
